MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Logistics

FROM : John F. Blake
Deputy Director for Administration

STATINTL

SUBJECT : [REDACTED]

1. Let me charge you with a task which I would normally assign to a member of my staff. It pertains, however, to the Selective Service Building, and you and your people are much more acquainted with all the details than any staff member here.

2. Working with the Intelligence Community Staff, the Offices of Communications and Security, and your own people, plus [REDACTED] of the Comptroller's Office, will you quickly draw up what should be the budgetary input for FY-77 and FY-78 for further requirements in the [REDACTED]. I have in mind elevator automation, more sophisticated communications equipment, etc.

3. You should be made aware that the Comptroller is of the opinion that he can fund our estimated [REDACTED] for FY-76 expenditures.

4. I am forwarding a copy of this memorandum to all other participants so that they will be aware of the activity. At the latest, let me have your projections by 12 May 1976.
